Metuchen Seniors Center Paint and Palette Association June 7th Event in the Junebug Art Festival

Metuchen, New Jersey

May 17, 20123

The Metuchen Seniors Center Paint and Palette Association will participate in this year's Junebug Art Festival. As part of the special opening celebration on Friday evening, June 7th, an exhibit and sale of original art work by members will be featured from 6-9 pm.

The Public is invited to view the painting and observe an artist at work at the Center, located at 15 Center Street in downtown Metuchen. A free drawing will be held for artwork created by members of the association, so those attending are encouraged to stop by and participate.

The Paint and Palette Association is under the direction of artist/instructor Terry Antoniewicz.

Under the guidance of Cathy Ostermueller, the Metuchen Senior Center has been providing activities and support services to Metuchen and the surrounding communities for 18 years.

For further information, contact the staff of the Center at 732-632-8524.
