There is an undeniable spirit of community generated throughout Metuchen by the artists, the visitors, the participants and the families engaged by the each and every event guided expertly by the many T-shirted hospitality volunteers. And finally, the comraderie of those in attendance brings together both longtime and new friends in an atmosphere only an arts celebration that takes place on warm June evenings can create.

We who serve on the 2013 Junebug ArtFest hope this year's event is the best and most inclusive yet, and offers a way for all to get in touch with the wonder of their own creative center.
